

Shepherd Tuesday Happenings

Shepherd Church of the Nazarene

April 6, 2010

Youth Yard Sale Saturday

The youth of Shepherd Church will have a yard-sale this Saturday to raise funds for their trip to the talent competition at Trevecca Nazarene University in Nashville.

Anyone may setup a table, at no cost. Even if you are not selling anything, come and see what is for sale and meet our neighbors.

Free Pizza Friday for all that will come to the church at 6 pm and help to set up for the sale. Good conversation, good memories, good pizza, for a good cause.

Baptism Postponed

The Baptism Service scheduled for later this month has been delayed by a scheduling conflict.

The service will be rescheduled soon.

If you wish to be baptized, please contact the pastor.

Young Adult Supper

Thurs., April 15, 6:30 pm

O'Charley's-Lexington

$6.00 per person

Kids Choir From Greenville First

A children's choir from Greenville First Church of the Nazarene is coming to minister to Shepherd on Sunday, May 2.

The group is a part of the children's ministry from our up-state, sister church, that is taking part in a Kid's Mission Trip.

In addition to worshipping with us, they will be working at the D. Moody Gunter Camp and Retreat Center (the S.C. District campground) at Batesburg that weekend.

Thanks to Senior Pastor Chuck Fountain and Children's Pastor Brenda Turner for sharing these talented young people with us.

Last Sunday

Over 50 Attend Spaghetti Lunch and Egg Hunt

Fifty-five adults and children attend the spaghetti lunch and Easter egg hunt last Saturday. Here are some of the sights as seen through the lens of Larry Ellisor's camera. (More on page 2)

Just Thinking - I just wanted to let you know that there was no extra charge for turning your car yellow during the services Easter Sunday morning.

I used my wipers to wash the layer of pollen from the windshield, which was useless, as all of the air around me was a greenish-yellow haze. That's right; spring has sprung and while we anticipate the beauty of the flowers and the trees, the pollen is doing its best to ruin the finish on my car and to cement my sinuses shut.

You see, as bad as it is, if it wasn't for the pollen, the trees and flowers would not bloom. Did you ever stop to think, as bad as it was, if Jesus had not died; He would not have risen so we can look forward to the beautiful promise of eternal life.

So, I guess we must endure the bad to get to the good. I will just keep popping Claritin or Benadryl and spending money at the car wash. Hope it's not hitting you too badly.

See you in Sunday School and Church.

More Easter Fun At Shepherd

Finally -- With all of the pollen in the air this spring, things about the house can begin to show signs of it's powdery, yellow presence.

The pastor's wife (not ours) was a less than fastidious housekeeper.

One evening the minister returned home from work, walked into the kitchen and teased her, "You know, dear, I can write my name in the dust and pollen on the mantel."

The bedraggled lady, who had chased children all day long, turned to him and sweetly replied, "Yes, darling, I know. That's why I married a college graduate."

Children's Pastor Melissa watches as the egg hunters sort their prizes.
