Annual Church Election This Sunday

The annual church election will be this Sunday morning from 9:30 until 10:15 am. The polls will be set up in the foyer of the church. Members of Shepherd Church should go to the voting area, identify your self to the workers (even if you know them and they know you). You will then be given an official ballot, which you should fill out and place in the ballot box.

Results of the election will be announced Sunday evening, published in Shepherd Tuesday Happenings, and in the bulletin the following Sunday morning.

The ballots will be kept on file in the church office for three months, should you have any questions.

Church Reported In Good Health

The church was in good health this year according to the reports given during the Annual Church Meeting last Sunday evening. Treasurer Lorrie Whitaker reported that the finances are good at this time. All board members reported on their areas of responsibility. Board Secretary John Frierson pointed out that all board members wear several hats and serve the church in many ways. The board members are Chad Branham, Janet Ellisor, Larry Ellisor, John Frierson, and Troy Whitaker.

Savon Frierson, the church auditor gave a brief explanation of the new budgeting formula.

Each of the church's ministers gave their reports. The Local Preachers are Melissa Coleman, Tim Davis, and LaVerne Shaw. John Frierson is a Lay Minister.

Pastor Coleman offered comments throughout the meeting and spoke of some possible plans for reducing the mortgage indebtedness.

Service Planned For Memorial Day

On Sunday, May 30, not only will we honor those that have fallen in all wars, Shepherd will remember those loved ones which have passed on during the past year.

Memorial Roll certificates will be presented during the 10 am service.

Family members of those being remembered will be invited, as well as guests and visitors.

Just Thinking -- I hate to go to the doctor! Do you hate to go to the doctor?

Now don't get me wrong, all of my doctors are nice ladies or gentlemen. In fact, I have some good friends who are doctors.

Yesterday, I had to go see one of my doctors (routine visit, nothing serious). Last Wednesday they called to remind me of my appointment on Monday. I'm glad that I didn't have anything else to think about for the next 5 days, or I may have missed the appointment.

Miz Savon and I arrived 10 minutes early, as instructed, and checked in with the receptionist. As soon as I got settled in my chair; she calls me back over to the desk to fill out the necessary paper work; which I noted was the same that I filled out the last two times and was really not relevant to my visit. After verbally noting that, I was told that it had to be filled out by everyone on each visit. I finished the papers and turned them in. Just as I got comfortable again, the nurse calls me into this tiny interview room, to check my vitals. She weighed me; I had lost 4 pounds ; my blood pressure was that of a 20-year old, unfortunately it is flowing in much older veins. The nurse then asked me how I was and reviewed my medical record. The first thing she did was pick up those two vital pieces of paper which I had just filled out, without reading them, tore them in half and threw them in the trash. So much for how vital my paper work was!

Aren't you glad that we can visit the Great Physician and not have to worry about insurance cards or "vital" paperwork? He is there to hear our needs and not rush out after a 3 minute conversation. "For I am the LORD, who heals you." (Exodus 15:26 NIV)

My next doctor's appointment isn't for a couple of weeks; but I have started filling out the "vital" paperwork; I hope the roll doesn't run out before I get it all written. See you in Sunday School and Church.

Camp Time Is Almost Here

Family Camp will begin the evening of June 20 and run through the afternoon of Sunday June 27. Shepherdians are urged to attend as many services as possible. The church will participate in both of the Sunday evening services.

Children's & Youth Camps, if you are interested contact Melissa Coleman ASAP

Finally -- Little Johnny's new baby brother was screaming up a storm in the church nursery.

He asked his mom, "Where'd we get him?"

His mother replied, "He came from heaven, Johnny."

Johnny says, "WOW! I can see why they threw him out!"
