New Board Elected for 2010 - 2011

Memorial Day Service Sunday

May we never forget those that served and died in every war from the American Revolution to the current conflict in Iraq and Afghanistan.

This Sunday we will honor our servicemen and women, past and present, in the 10 am service.

During the service we will also be presenting Memorial Roll Certificates to the families and friends of those who have gone on during the past year.

We are encouraging those that served in any branch of the military to be present. Families and friends of loved ones that we have lost this year; as well as visitors and guests.

Let's all be a part of honoring these special folks.

Baby Day Will Be On June 6

We will celebrate the babies in the church during the morning service on Sunday, June 6.

Please give Pastor Melissa some pictures of your baby, so we can show them on the big screen during the service.

Just Thinking -- A while back, I told you that Miz Savon had given me a satellite radio for the car. She is probably having second thoughts about doing that as I listen to the hits from the 50's and the 60's.

I have often heard it said that the music was so much better back then because you could "understand the words". We were driving up to the campground the other afternoon and I was listening to these stations and heard such outstanding lyrics as "Ah weema wak"; "Shaboom, shaboom"; "Ooop, oop, Alley Oop"; and those immortal words, "Splish, splash, I was taking a bath (Too Much Information)". Yes we could understand the words, but to this day, I have no idea what some of them mean. However, these song lyrics are embedded in my mind from my school days and my days as a disc jockey. Yes, Virginia, I was a once a disc jockey, even though we preferred to be referred to as "On-Air Personalities".

While these golden oldies may be laughed at by later generations, at least our songs were not filled with words that have to be "bleeped" out for civil audiences. Back then, we didn't even have bleeper's or time delays; if a song had marginal words or meanings; they simply were not played on some stations. If an on-air personality used these words, even by accident, he was suspended or fired on the spot.

We see people today with bracelets and bumper stickers with "WWJD". What Would Jesus Do? I really don't know what Jesus would do when people used these words; but I know what my Mom would have done. I would have been spitting Ivory Soap out of my mouth for an hour. The Bible cautions us, "Careless words stab like a sword, but wise words bring healing." (Proverbs 12:18 NCV)

By the way, do any of you have the faintest idea of what "Bee bop aloo bop a biff bam boom" means? Oh well, we'll see you in Sunday School and Church.

The Common Cents Jar, for your loose change and bills is in the church foyer, The church board has voted that any money deposited in the jar will be donated to Samaritan's Well, a Lexington, Christ centered organization that ministers to women & children in need.

Finally -- Comedian Jeff Foxworthy has made a career out of "You might be a redneck if..." Well, "You Might Be a Nazarene if..."

- ...if you think God's presence is always strongest in the back three pews
-if you think "Called Unto Holiness" is the national anthem.
- ...if the first complete sentence you uttered was "We've never done it this way before."
- ...if your definition of "fellowship" has something to do with food.
- ...if you honestly believe the Apostle Paul spoke King James English
- ...if you think Jesus actually used Welch's grape juice and saltine crackers.

And finally, if you ever wake up in the middle of the night craving fried chicken and interpret that feeling as a call to preach, you might be a Nazarene.
